Programme Outcome (Integrated LL.B)

The graduates will be able to:

- Apply the knowledge of laws, rules and regulations at the local, national and international level to a given factual situation.
- Cater to the needs of society as they work closely with the local people through their clinical courses.
- use excellent communication skills and skills
- Identify appropriate mechanisms for resolving disputes including appropriate ADR methods, the appropriate court having jurisdiction, appropriate international forum
- Work excellently as an individual and as a team member with all modern applications and research tools
- Conduct policy and legal research on relevant and contemporary local, national and international areas.
- Become law practitioners upholding professional ethics and responsibilities

Programme Specific Outcomes BA.LL.B

The students will be able to:

- Apply the knowledge of law in an inter-disciplinary manner.
- Undertake multidisciplinary analysis of socio-legal issues.

Programme Specific Outcomes BBA.LL.B

The students will be able to:

- Use their management and entrepreneurial skills.
- Analyse the financial statements

Programme Outcome (LL.M)

The post-graduates will be able to:

- Conduct advanced legal research involving original, independent critical thinking and will be ready to move to advanced research like PhD.
- Communicate effectively the theoretical and doctrinal aspects of their area of specialisation.
- Effectively conduct classroom learning activities.
- Conduct research, writing and teaching in accordance with ethical standards governing their profession.
- Able to critically analyse the topics of their specialisations for the advancement of knowledge.
- Become specialised teachers and researchers in their area of specialisation.

Programme Specific Outcomes LLM CAL

- ✓ The students will have an in-depth understanding of constitutional law and administrative law.
- ✓ The students will demonstrate excellent legal research skills in multidisciplinary analysis of socio-legal issues.

Programme Specific Outcomes LLM CCL

- ✓ The students will have an in-depth understanding of corporate and commercial laws.
- ✓ The students will demonstrate research skills in corporate governance issues, FDI matters, and other contemporary areas.

Programme Outcomes PhD

- The students will demonstrate competence in their research topic as an effective researcher.
- The students will develop self-reflection and the ability to engage in long term research in the broadest context of changing legal contexts.
- The students will be original critical thinkers and contribute to the knowledge of their research area.
- The students will have the ability to use research methodology and analytical skills to expand the research.