

Journal on Rights of the Child

In view of the enthusiastic response for the Special Issue on Rights of the Child of NLUO Law Journal (Volume III), Centre for Rights of the Child of National Law University Odisha has decided to bring out a separate journal on Rights of the Child. The journal would have two issues in a year. This Year editorial Board of the journal decided to invites scholarly papers, book reviews, case comments, movie reviews on special issues relating to “Child Labour”.

Original unpublished writings by teachers, students, lawyers, professionals etc. are welcomed and can be submitted at childrightsjournal@nluo.ac.in. Journal on Rights of the Child aims to encourage interdisciplinary discussion on welfare of children. Therefore articles from disciplines other than law would be welcomed.

All articles, book reviews and case comments should be original and not published elsewhere. If any article has been accepted for publication elsewhere while under consideration for publication in the Journal on Rights of the Child, author should inform immediately if she/he wants to withdraw the article.

An abstract of 150 to 300 words should also be submitted along-with articles and comments. Given below is the word limit for the three categories of writings.
