National Law University Odisha

National Law University Odisha (NLUO), Cuttack was established by the Act 4 of 2008 by the Odisha State Legislature and started imparting education in Law from the Academic Year 2009-10. The University was established keeping in mind a clearly enunciated vision of advancement of learning, teaching, research, diffusion of knowledge in the field of law and catering to the needs of society. The University has been continuously working for the betterment of the society through various seminars, conferences, consultancy programmes, etc., and in furtherance of the objectives, has established various centres of excellence to carryout research, training and extension activities.

Global Alliance For Justice Education

GAJE is a GLOBAL ALLIANCE of persons committed to achieving JUSTICE through EDUCATION. GAJE has sponsored ten worldwide conferences since it was formed in 1999, with delegates at each conference representing every region of the world. GAJE conferences, as well as other GAJE activities described on this website, are aimed at promoting the exchange of information and experience among persons involved in Justice Education around the world. Clinical education of law students is a key component of justice education, but GAJE also works to advance other forms of socially relevant legal education involving practicing lawyers, judges, non-governmental organizations, and the lay public.

ADR Board

The NLUO Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Board has been established with the objective to increase awareness and promote research in the field of ADR. It strives to generate interest in ADR as an effective means of dispute resolution. The Board has trained students to represent the University in multiple National and International Mediation and Negotiation Competitions, in which the students have performed exceedingly well. The Board also has organized Virtual webinars and panel discussions on International Arbitration. In order to carry forward the objectives of the Board, the Board started the e-Newsletter to catalyse the awareness about alternative dispute resolution and to foster ADR culture with the participation of students in research avenues. The primary objective of the e-Newsletter is to disseminate knowledge relating to the current affairs in the field of ADR. The e-Newsletter intends to include articles and interviews from students, experts, academicians and reputed legal professionals practicing in the field of ADR.
