

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY ODISHA, CUTTACK

The National Law University Odisha (NLUO) is a vibrant addition to chain of national law universities in the country. Within a short span of time, NLUO has made its mark as a university engaged in and committed to quality teaching and research in law. Our faculty research output has always been of a very high standard. Faculty publications in several top-tier international publications bespeak about their subject expertise and scholarship. The student community's engagement with co-curricular activities has yielded remarkable results, including consistently high performances in moot court competitions and active participation in prestigious national and international conferences and seminars. Our rigorous academic discipline coupled with friendly learning environment provides a platform to the students to realize their true potential and develop in their fields of interest and passion. This increases their level of contribution in enhancing the overall environment of scholarship and reservoir of knowledge in the University.

The University has received recognition from the University Grants Commission (UGC) under Section 12(b) of the UGC Act 1956, and has been receiving grants under the XIIth Plan. The University's degrees are duly recognized by the Bar Council of India. It is also an associate member of the UGC-INFLIBNET, and a participant in the National Knowledge Network under the Ministry of Information Technology and Communication, Government of India. The University was accredited with 'A' Grade by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) in the year 2016. NLU Odisha was amongst the top-sixty Universities of the country which were granted autonomy by the University Grants Commission for maintaining the high academic standards.

NLUO is housed in its own campus near Naraj at the western extreme of historical city of Cuttack. The area is known for its scenic beauty. The University campus which is spread over 50 acres of land.

WHY NLUO?

1. We ensure to provide multidimensional learning experience with our approach of facilitating multi-disciplinary perspective building with a combination of academic and practical scholarship. This leads to a comprehensive understanding of law in context of socio-political realities of our society, cultural plurality and the country.

2. We invest in quality legal research and promote an environment which allows exchange of intellectual thought process. Our law school is an incubator for nurturing scholarship and innovative ideas and inculcate analytical and critical thinking.

3. NLU Odisha students are trained by a group of experienced, dynamic, young and most significantly committed teachers. The teachers at NLUO are mostly alumni of the leading National Law Universities in India and reputed law schools abroad. They come from diverse background, having served in the office of the Chief Justice of India, practiced in law at Bar, served in civil society organisations, served in Indian Police Service and have headed various reputed educational institutions in the past. Our faculty is our pride and we are committed to invest in scholarship of our faculty so that you get the best in the country.

4. We provide state-of-art infrastructure like fully equipped library, 24 x 7 wi-fi enabled campus, audio-visual enabled class rooms and moot court hall, Seminar-cum-Convention Hall, Amphitheatre, Conference Hall, Gymnasium, Sports Complex, single bedded hostel rooms etc. to facilitate the smooth and enjoyable learning process.

5. To fulfil our social commitment, we organize legal aid camps in the villages across the State of Odisha in collaboration with the United Nations Development Program, High Court of Orissa and the District Judiciary. These programs are organized, coordinated entirely by the student body in the supervision of law professors. This enables the students to learn the application of law and connect it with the principles of law taught in the classroom. Besides, we as a University admit our social responsibility and are committed to provide greater legal aid facilities to the needy litigants in Odisha who are often under or unrepresented in the courts of law.

6. To multiply the effect of legal scholarship, we frequently organize lecture series/ seminars/ conferences/ workshops on diverse aspects of law and allied subjects by inviting scholars, practitioners, lawyers, judges, members of media who share their critical perspectives and experiences in the fields of law, politics, judiciary, economic affairs, international affairs, history and culture. This provides a platform for open dialogue between scholars, faculty and students and generates a healthy environment of cross-sectoral learning.

7. Distinguished and experienced scholars, judges, law practitioners and professors from other parts of the worlds visit NLUO every year and teach specialized courses and deliver guest lectures to our students. For example NLU Odisha has been conferred a special autonomy to-conduct specialized courses under Global Initiative of Academic Network (GIAN) Programme as part of the Ministry of Human Resource, Government of India's Scheme. Prof. Jane K. Winn, Professor of Law, University of Washington School of Law, United States of America, Prof. Umakanth Varottil, Professor of Law, National University of Singapore, Dr Michael McGuire, Senior Lecturer in Criminology, University of Surrey, United Kingdom and Dr. Srividhya Raghavan, Professor of Law, Texas A &M University School of Law, United States of America have already visited NLUO as part of this initiative to deliver lectures. Many more similar legal experts and scholars are expected to visit NLUO in the next academic session. This has become an integral part of NLUO's academic activities. Our students are the biggest beneficiaries of such lectures and programs.

8. NLUO provides an excellent opportunity to students to hone their moot skills that includes drafting memoranda and presenting arguments. Students are also well supported to travel nationally and internationally to represent the university in prestigious moot court competitions. The University has its own state-of-art moot court room facility. This has enabled our students to perform better in the South Asia Rounds Price Media Law Moot Court Competition, 2018 (as the Runners-up), First CCI NLU Delhi Competition Law Moot Court Competition, 2018 (Runners up and Best memorial), 59th Edition of Philip C. Jessup International Moot Court Competition India Rounds, 2018 (Best Memorial and 4th Best Oralist) and 19th DM Harish Memorial GLC International Moot 2018 (as 2nd Best researcher).

9. In order to provide our students global exposure, NLUO is putting in place an extensive range of exciting exchange programmes with the leading law schools and universities in the world. We have signed Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with School of Law, Texas A&M University, USA; The University of Kansas School of Law, Kansas, USA; University of Illinois, U.S.A.; Northumbria University, London, U.K; SOAS University of London, U.K; Universidade Federal Fluminense, Brazil; World University of Bangladesh; Pepperdine University, Malibu, USA; Community Legal Outreach Collaboration, Keele (CLOCK), UK.

10. To keep a close check on our quality standards, We conduct periodic revision of academic curriculum, course syllabus, teaching pedagogy and learning skills to meet the changing needs of legal education based on the student feedback, peer review process, professional and industrial inputs.

BEYOND ACADEMICS

- ◆ We promote leadership skills and the wholesome life experience of our students by encouraging them to take part in various literary, debating, cultural, entrepreneurial and recreational activities.
- ◆ The University has also introduced an Informal Discussion Group (IDG) to conduct free discussions and debate among students on one hand and between students & visiting dignitaries on general social and political issues on the other hand.
- ◆ NLUO is recognized as one of the chapters of IDIA Programme helping students in preparation of CLAT exam. NLUO chapter of IDIA also helps visually challenged and other students in need of support.
