FACULTY SPEAKS

---

Dr. Arjyalopa Mishra

Assistant Professor

National Law University Odisha has risen in the ranks as a premier university in the first few years of its inception itself. The initial batches of students are already reaching positions of Senior Associates and Partners in firms and have also branched into various other career options. Every year NLUO sees a new batch graduating with potential, and the University continues to facilitate recruitment opportunities for every new batch.

I became a faculty advisor of the Recruitment Coordination Committee in 2019, and over the years, we have witnessed a rise in campus placements from just a few offers from a batch to over 80% of the batch being placed by the time they graduate. The Committee and its faculty advisors have helped strategise for maximum recruitment and channelise the efforts of the University and its students towards securing quality opportunities. We also conduct regular need assessments, and the feedback propels students to continue improving on themselves for the skill market. With the efforts of the Recruitment Coordination Committee 2023, I am optimistic that the 2023 batch shall secure even more recruitment opportunities and have even better results to show, and I wish them all the very best.

Dr. Mayank Tiwari

Assistant Professor

In fact, what sets them apart from the crowd is their sheer willingness to challenge themselves in every aspect of the curriculum. Be it moot court competitions, debates, ADR, or publications, the batch has shown tremendous potential on both national and international levels. The UG course of NLU Odisha is known for its rigorous and diversified curriculum with practical approach. It focuses on overall growth of the students.

I had the opportunity to interact with them and teach them for two semesters. I must emphasise that the batch is very hard working and shows great promise. As young budding lawyers, the Batch has displayed their desire to not only achieve success but also set a high threshold in academic excellence for themselves and all the upcoming batches. With their resolution and grit, they are fully capable of achieving unparalleled success. I am confident that the batch of 2018-23 will be a wonderful asset to any organisation they join. It is my pleasure to invite you for final placement of 2018-23 batch of NLU Odisha.

BATCH OF 2023

Belonging to one of the first few batches of a young university comes with its fair share of expectations and responsibilities, and the Batch of 2023 of National Law University Odisha has time and again stood up to the challenges. The batch showcases a diversity which adds a distinct flavour to the overall learning experience that the University provides. The students have touched every facet of knowledge by partaking in a variety of curricular and extra-curricular activities, ranging from Publications, Debating, Moot Courts, Alternative Dispute Resolutions, Sports and Cultural Activities.

The class has set itself apart by fulfilling its endeavour to be determined in light of the testing times it faced, which can be seen by the leadership qualities that some of the student-run initiatives started in the times of COVID-19 showcase, viz., inter alia, Success Boat, All India Legal Forum, The Competition Forum, etc. which aim to provide more meaning to the legal society. Even in the most of difficult times, the batch continued in its endeavour to reach academic and intellectual heights. The class has seen glory by being the first in many to secure accolades in both international and national mooting competitions.

Not only this, it has excelled in its analytical merit by having published research papers in a variety of reputed journals. Students of the class have also been involved in setting up one of Odisha's first student run Legal Aid website, while simultaneously playing a key role in sensitising the underprivileged, prisoners and villagers. The Batch has also been actively involved as research assistants for some of our professors, which involves a wide array of exposure, from empirical field work to doctrinal research. The Batch has also garnered a broad range of ground level experience while interning with a mixed bag of legal organisations, which include government institutions, NGOs, think tanks, corporate houses, law firms, etc.

The Batch of 2023 attributes its excellence and growth to the opportunities provided by the University. The students of the batch can be recognised as a mould of academic excellence and strong perseverance, who acknowledge the challenges that come with the legal field and have, over the years prepared themselves to face them with aplomb. And as we head to enter this journey, our hope is to put our best foot forward in our professional endeavours.

Sakshi Mishra - Associate at L&L Partners

“This college has inspired me to become a better version of myself. I have found that NLUO is a great place to study, not least because it is a university that makes you want to learn. The faculty has been light at the end of every tunnel whom we students follow and find our path. Whatever in this short span I have achieved, it is because of the teachings and practical knowledge provided by the university.”

Priyanka Bhattacharya - Attorney at Law, California

“My ardor to pursue higher education in law has been a seemingly causal event of what I fondly think of as Edward Lorenz’s Butterfly Effect. In-fact I have a strong conviction that it was the very environment at NLUO, taking her baby steps towards becoming one of the best law schools in the country and embarking on the journey to impart finest legal education, that had slowly culminated into the passion that I feel today, for law as a subject!”

Titiksha Shrivastava - Media Lawyer & Celebrity Manager

“During my 5 years at NLUO I got to experience and explore almost every aspect of everything I wanted to build as my career. The kind of exposure I have received at NLUO is priceless and is helping me reach my goals with each passing day. I wish the same for all the students graduating every year from NLUO. Lots of love and wishes to the students.”
