

Double Credit Course on Gender and Law

Organised by:
Gender Sensitisation Committee
National Law University Odisha
19.01.2026 to 15.02.2026

About NLUO

National Law University Odisha (NLUO), Cuttack, was established by Act 4 of 2008 by the Odisha State Legislature and started imparting education in law from the academic year 2009-10. The university was established keeping in mind a clearly enunciated vision of advancement of learning, teaching, research, diffusion of knowledge in the field of law, and catering to the needs of society. The university has been continuously working for the betterment of society through various seminars, conferences, consultancy programmes, outreach programmes, etc. In furtherance of the objectives, the University has established various centres and committees of excellence to carry out research, training and extension activities

About GSC

The Gender Sensitisation Committee (GSC) is formed under Rule 3, National Law University Odisha Sexual Harassment Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal Regulations, 2021, to conduct gender orientation programmes in the university at regular intervals. The committee consists of members committed to the cause of gender equality and spreading awareness around the same. The committee intends to make NLUO gender-sensitive and promote inclusivity.

Our committee is one of a kind, which enables discourse around gender, sexuality, consent, and intersectionality in the university. In the past, we have organized movie screenings and discussion nights with eminent historians and human rights activists such as Dr. Uma Chakravarty and Dr. Usha Ramanathan. We conducted sensitization workshops at the university by inviting experts in the field. Every year, we intend to engage the student body through workshops, events, and fun activities and enable discourse in the university around sexuality, feminism, and gender.

Introduction

This first edition of the 32-hour double-credit course offers an interdisciplinary introduction to gender and law in India, bringing together conceptual foundations with practical engagement. Learners will engage with key themes: the evolution of gender studies, constitutional protections, reproductive rights, major gender legislation, and institutional mechanisms such as the Internal Committees under the POSH Act. The course also covers emerging concerns at the intersection of gender, technology, and digital governance.

Through a series of interactive modules, participants will explore and learn about the multifaceted approach to gender along with its legal background. Case-study analysis and reflective discussions will help deepen personal insight and foster empathy. The course will consist of lectures and practical assignments for students to gain clarity in the concepts taught in lectures.

By the end of this course, students will be well-versed in interpreting gender norms and the legal and institutional frameworks set up to exercise them and help contribute to an inclusive and gender-sensitive society.

Course Objectives

- Understand foundational concepts in gender studies, including key theories, terminology, and the evolution of gender discourse in India.
- Examine constitutional principles related to gender equality, non-discrimination, and fundamental rights.
- Analyse major gender-related legislations such as laws on sexual harassment (POSH Act), domestic violence, reproductive rights, and personal laws.
- Explore emerging intersections between gender, technology, digital governance, and online safety.
- Foster empathy and ethical engagement in addressing gender-based discrimination within legal and social contexts.

Learning Outcomes

- Assess gendered dimensions of legal issues, demonstrating the ability to spot bias, gaps, or discriminatory impacts in legal processes and outcomes.
- Reflect on the interaction between law and lived experiences, demonstrating empathy, awareness, and ethical understanding.
- Collaborate effectively in group discussions and assignments, demonstrating improved communication and analytical skills in gender-related legal contexts.

Teaching Methods

- Concept Lectures and Presentations
- Brainstorming Exercises
- Case Law-based Studies
- Problem-based Learning Assignments
- Reflection-oriented Learning
