It also delves into the specific initiatives undertaken by various university committees and centers, taking into consideration the distinctive circumstances of the academic year.

Additionally, the newsletter offers a comprehensive overview of recent university developments, capturing the essence of both online and offline events.

ABOUT US

The Alumni Relations Society, NLUO was established in the year 2017 with the aim of bridging the gap between the Alumni and the university. The Society has been constantly working in its pursuit of keeping the alumni engaged with the university and acting as a ladder in their communication with the students. The Society intends to bring in the experience of our alumni for the upskilling of our students and making them industry prepared. So far, the Society, through its various initiatives, has been successful in keeping our alumni closer to their alma mater.

VISION & MISSION

The vision of the Society is to facilitate the university's presence in local, national, and international communities. The main aim of the Society is to work as a bridge to converse the interests and issues of the alumni to the University.

THE NEWS

In the bustling halls of the National Law University Odisha (NLUO), each month brings forth a kaleidoscope of academic pursuits, extracurricular engagements, and notable achievements. Let's embark on a journey through the recent months, capturing the essence of life at NLUO.

April: A tapestry of events

April set the stage for various events fostering student engagement and intellectual growth. From cultural events to sports events, like Kairaan 2023, Viraj 2023, and Para Viraj 2023, to an insightful visit by final-year BALLB students to O-hub, the month witnessed a convergence of learning and camaraderie. The university's commitment to environmental responsibility shone through in the Green Mandate participation, while the Ambedkar Memorial Lecture added an intellectual layer to the campus discourse. The presence of NLUO at the Youth G20 and the Sailabala Pujari Memorial Lecture highlighted the institution's active involvement in global dialogues and legal tributes. Moreover, a national online consultation on Project Tobacco Control showcased NLUO's dedication to addressing pressing social issues.

May: Celebrating achievements and farewell

May saw the Batch of 2018-2023 celebrating placement achievements, marking a significant milestone in their academic journey. A heartfelt farewell bid adieu to the graduating batch, creating cherished memories and marking the end of an era.

June: A Mark of Excellence

In a significant stride, NLUO achieved ISO 9001:2015 certification from the Bureau of Indian Standards, a testament to the institution's commitment to maintaining the highest standards of quality education.
