Provided that the Schedule of dates shall provide for not more than 7 days for the conclusion of the election process.

- f) The outgoing Student Council shall prepare a "List of Voters" as per Schedule I of this Constitution and notify the same to the Student Body Association.
- g) Each member of the Student Body Association shall be eligible to vote for the election of their respective batch representative(s).
- h) For the purpose of the election, the outgoing Student Council shall, through its official email ID, call for the nominations from the Student Body Association.
- i) Subject to the provisions of this clause, the interested members of the Student Body Association may file their nominations in the format prescribed under Annexure I.

Provided that the candidate who seeks to file the nomination must declare its intent of doing so to its respective batch, and attach the proof of such declaration with the nomination form.

- j) The Candidates who have filed the nomination must be provided a prescribed period of time to allow them to withdraw their candidature.

Provided that the candidate who seeks to withdraw the nomination must declare its reasons of doing so to its respective batch, and attach the proof of declaration with the formal request of withdrawal.

- k) Subject to the sub-clause (i) and (j) of this Article, if at the end of the withdrawal period, only a single candidate's name remains for the post of batch representative, an additional window of 24 hours must be provided to allow any other interested candidate to file its nomination.

- l) After the receipt of the nominations under the aforementioned provisions and verification of the same by the Returning Officer, the outgoing Student Council shall notify the list of valid nominations to the Student Body Association.

Provided that in case no candidate seeks to contest the election for the post of the batch representative from any batch, the nomination of the batch representative shall be done by the Vice-Chancellor.

Provided further that for the purpose of such nomination by the Vice-Chancellor, the newly elected student council shall open a call for applications from the concerned batch.

Provided also that the Vice-Chancellor shall conclude the process of nominations within 2 working days, after the receipt of all the applications from the concerned batch.

2. Voting Procedure

Notwithstanding anything provided in this constitution, the outgoing Student Council shall solely resort to electronic means for the purpose of conducting the election process in the manner as prescribed.

3. Counting of Votes

The following procedure shall be followed for the counting of votes:

- a) The candidate receiving the highest number of votes, as per the first-past-the-post system, shall be declared as an elected member of the Student Council.
Provided that if only a single candidate seeks to contest the elections for the post of batch representative, he/she shall, by default, be declared as an elected member of the Student Council.
Illustration: If, in an election a total of 100 votes are polled, candidate A gets 10 votes, candidate B gets 40 votes, and candidate C gets 50 votes, the winner is candidate C.
- b) In case the counting ends in a tie, the final result of the election shall be determined by the draw of lots.
- c) Upon conclusion of the polling, the Returning Officer shall immediately prepare the vote count list in accordance with the Schedule I and notify the same to the Student Body Association.
- d) The notification of the vote count list shall be deemed as the conclusion of the election process.
- e) The outgoing Student Council shall ensure the conduct of the first meeting of the newly elected Student Council within 48 hours of the conclusion of the election process, for the purpose of deciding the post bearers of the new Student Council, as per the procedure prescribed in Article IV of the Constitution.

4. Electoral Code of Conduct

At the time of notification of the initiation of the election process, the outgoing Student Council shall publish an Electoral Code of Conduct to ensure free and fair elections which shall immediately come into force and shall remain operational until the conclusion of the election process.

Provided that the contents of Schedule II must necessarily be included in the Electoral Code of Conduct.

5. Grievances & Complaints

- a) Any grievance or complaint in relation to the violation of the electoral code of conduct or the election process shall be raised with the Returning Officer, via email, along with the appropriate proof.
- b) Upon receipt of any complaint under the aforementioned sub-clause, the Returning Officer shall adjudicate the complaint in accordance with the principles of natural justice, and shall presume a candidate to be innocent unless prima facie evident otherwise from the proof submitted.
- c) Upon adjudication of any complaint filed under this clause, the Returning Officer may disqualify the candidacy of the candidate or remove the candidate from the Student Council, as the case may be.
Provided that the reasons for such disqualification shall be notified to the Student Body Association.
Provided further that in case any disqualification occurs after the conclusion of the elections, the vacancy arising thereof shall be addressed as per Article XV of this Constitution.

ARTICLE X: COMPLAINTS AND GRIEVANCES TO THE STUDENT COUNCIL

1. The following scenarios shall warrant direct approach to the Student Council:
 - a) Any complain or grievance against the administration by a committee member or a student.
 - b) Any complain against any committee by any other committee member or a student.
 - c) Any grievance for which there is no established forum for its resolution or redressal.
2. Any grievance for whose redressal there already exists a forum, student(s) or committee(s) shall approach the student council only after exhausting that forum.
Provided that the above clause is subject to exhaustion of reasonable time.
3. Notwithstanding anything in the aforementioned clauses of this article, the student council can suo-moto take cognizance of any matter under this article through any member of the student council.

ARTICLE XI: REMOVAL OF A MEMBER BY STUDENT COUNCIL
